

RIPPC 2018
Preliminary Program at a Glance
Saturday 17 March 2018

Time	Sydney Town Hall
0900 - 0950	Opening
0900 - 0905	Welcome and Opening with MC Hugh Riminton , Channel 10
0905 - 0910	Welcome to Country
0910 - 0950	Opening Remarks The Hon Gladys Berejiklian MP Premier of NSW Ian Riseley OAM Rotary International President
0950 - 1030	Session 1: The Link Between Economic Development and Peace
0950 - 1030	The Economic Value of Peace Steve Killelea Institute of Economics and Peace
1030 - 1100	Morning Tea
1100 - 1300	Session 2: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace - Building Positive Peace
1100 - 1300	Speakers Include: Professor Muhammad Yunus Nobel Peace Laureate, Founder of the Grameen Bank and Pioneer of Microcredit and Microfinance Jean Napo Sibomana Empowering rural communities for reconciliation and sustainable peace through socio-economic development initiatives in post-genocide Rwanda Mahir Momand The economic value of refugees CEO Thrive Refugee Enterprise
1300 - 1345	Lunch
1345 - 1500	Session 3: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace - Think Globally, Act Locally
1345 - 1500	Speakers include: Rebecca Tolstoy, Path of Hope - Reducing Domestic Violence Jeremy Blackman The Trolling Fields: Online hate and conflict - Causes, effects and what's being done Panel: Together for Humanity: Education for understanding and preventing alienation and extremism Rabbi Zalman Kastel National Director, Together for Humanity Foundation Kate Oliver Senior Education Officer, Together for Humanity Madenia Abdurahman President, Together for Humanity: Chairperson, Muslim Aid Australia Taha Altam Facilitator, Together for Humanity
1500 - 1530	Afternoon Tea
1530 - 1640	Session 4: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace: A Call to Action - How to Engage People and Build Peace
1530 - 1640	Speakers include: Stephanie Woollard "Seven Women": Rotary Peace Fellow - "Peacebuilding through Economic Empowerment and Equality" Dr Melissa Curley Senior Lecturer in International Relations and Director, University of Queensland Rotary Peace Centre A Panel of Rotary Peace Fellow Students including: Shen Huang, Perla Padilla and Nicholas Drushella University of Queensland
1640 - 1700	Panel Discussion