

RIPPC 2018
Preliminary Program at a Glance
Saturday 17 March 2018

Time	Sydney Town Hall
0900 - 0950	Opening
0900 - 0905	Welcome and Opening with MC Hugh Riminton, Channel 10
0905 - 0910	Welcome to Country
0910 - 0950	Opening Remarks The Hon Gladys Berejiklian MP, Premier of NSW Ian Riseley OAM, Rotary International President
0950 - 1030	Session 1: The Link Between Economic Development and Peace
0950 - 1030	The Economic Value of Peace Steve Killelea, Institute of Economics and Peace
1030 - 1100	Morning Tea
1100 - 1300	Session 2: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace - Building Positive Peace
1100 - 1300	Speakers Include: Professor Muhammad Yunus, Novel Peace Laureate, Founder of the Grameen Bank and Pioneer of Microcredit and Microfinance Professor Dapo Akande, Professor of Public International Law, Oxford University. Yamani Fellow at St. Peter's College and Co-Director of the Oxford Institute for Ethics, Law and Armed Conflict (ELAC) & the Oxford Martin Programme on Human Rights for Future Generations Mahir Momand CEO Thrive Refugee Enterprise
1300 - 1345	Lunch
1345 - 1500	Session 3: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace - Think Globally, Act Locally
1345 - 1500	Speakers include: Rebecca Tolstoy, Path of Hope - Reducing Domestic Violence Panel: Together for Humanity, Building Interfaith and Intercultural Social Cohesion through Education
1500 - 1530	Afternoon Tea
1530 - 1640	Session 4: The Link Between Economic and Community Development and Peace: A Call to Action - How to Engage People and Build Peace
1530 - 1640	Speakers include: Stephanie Woollard, 'Seven Women'; Rotary Peace Fellow - "Peacebuilding through Economic Empowerment and Equality Dr Melissa Curley, Senior Lecturer in International Relations and Director, University of Queensland Rotary Peace Centre A Panel of Rotary Peace Fellow Students University of Queensland
1640 - 1700	Panel Discussion